

JANNIKA ENEGREN

born 1967

Education

- Diploma de Língua e Cultura Portuguesa, Lisbon University 1989-90
- LL.M (oikeustieteen kandidaatti), University of Helsinki 1993
- Trained on the bench 1993-94, Mustasaari District Court
- Master of International and Comparative Law (LL.M.), Vrije Universiteit, Brussel 1997-98
- Studies in psychology at the University of Helsinki 2001-2003 (developmental psychology, personality psychology, neuropsychology, cognitive psychology and training in psychological research)

Work experience

I opened my own law firm in the beginning of 2007. Since 1987 I've worked at various law firms, as a District Court judge and 1994-2006 at the Law Drafting Department of the Ministry of Justice. Over the years I've handled various legislative projects, worked with issues related to the constitution and human rights, matters relation to the autonomous Åland islands and with developing the law drafting procedures within the Finnish government. I have also worked with judicial cooperation within the Nordic Council of Ministers in 2000-2006.

Language skills

- excellent Finnish, Swedish and English
- good Portuguese and French
- good understanding of written and spoken Norwegian and Danish
- fair understanding of written and spoken German, Dutch, Spanish and Italian

Hobbies

Reading, travelling, astanga yoga, down-hill skiing and good food.